AMENDED BY-LAWS
OF GMA NETWORK, INC.

ARTICLE I
NAME AND SEAL

Section 1. Name - Unless and until otherwise changed in the manner provided by law, the name of the corporation shall be "GMA NETWORK, INC." (As amended on August 4 and 9, 1995)

Section 2. Seal - The seal of the corporation shall be circular in form and shall bear the name of the corporation around the border and such other device or inscription as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Board of Directors may change the device or inscription thereon at any time and from time to time.

ARTICLE II
PRINCIPAL AND BRANCHES OFFICES

Section 1. Principal Office. - The principal office of the corporation shall be at the place stated under the corporation's Articles of Incorporation. (As amended on August 4 and 9, 1995 and March 25, 2022)

Section 2. Other Offices - The Board of Directors may establish branch offices of the corporation at such other places, either within or without the Philippines, as the Board of Directors may determine and direct. The stock and transfer books shall at all times be kept at the principal office of the corporation in the Philippines.

ARTICLE III
STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meeting - All meetings of stockholders shall be held in the principal office of the corporation as stated in the articles of incorporation, or if not practicable, in the city or municipality where such office is located (As amended on August 4 and 9, 1995 and March 25, 2022)

Section 2. Annual Meeting – The annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, or if not practicable, in the city or municipality where such office is located, on the third Wednesday of May of each year at ten o'clock in the morning. If the election of directors shall not be held on the day designated for any annual meeting or at any adjournment of such meeting, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting or soon thereafter as the same may conveniently be held. At such special meeting, the stockholders may elect the directors and transact other business as stated in the notice of the meeting with the same force and effect as at any annual meeting duly called and held. (As amended on October 11, 2005 and March 25, 2022)

Section 3. Special Meeting – A special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board at his discretion or by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors or on the demand of the stockholders holding at least 10% of the outstanding shares of the Corporation, or such number of percentage of outstanding shares as may be prescribed by law or regulation. (As amended on October 11, 2005 and March 25, 2022)

Section 3.a. – Notice of Meeting – Notice of annual meetings or special meetings of stockholders may be sent by the Corporate Secretary by personal delivery, mail, telegraph, cable or electronic transmission to each stockholder of record to his last known post office or electronic mail address or by publication in a general circulation. For annual meetings, the notice shall be sent at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the meeting, unless a different period is required by law or regulation, while for special meetings, at least one (1) week written notice shall be sent to all stockholders, unless a different period is provided in the law or regulation.

The notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting, and the purpose for which the meeting is called. In case of special meetings, only matters stated in the notice can be the subject of motions or deliberations at such meeting.

The requirement for notice to the meeting shall be deemed waived if the stockholder, in person or by proxy, shall be present thereat.

When the meeting of stockholders is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the reconvened meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. (As amended on October 11, 2005 and March 25, 2022)

Section 4. Quorum – The holders of a majority of the shares of the subscribed stock of the corporation outstanding, present in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as may otherwise specially be provided with respect to particular matters by applicable statutory provisions in force at the time of voting with respect to such matters. All provisions of these By-Laws which specify or relate to the powers of the stockholders or to action which may be taken by the stockholders at or in connection with meetings thereof shall be interpreted as referring to the holders of shares of stock of the corporation. If there is no quorum at any meeting, the stockholders present in person and by proxy at such meeting may adjourn from time to time to secure the attendance of a quorum and no notice of any such adjournment need be given.

Section 5. Proxy – Any stockholder may in writing authorize any person or corporation to vote as the proxy of such stockholder at any meeting or meetings of the corporation; provided, however, that such authorization in writing must be filed with or presented to the corporation prior to any meeting or meetings at which such proxy may act pursuant thereto and shall hold good until a written revocation of the same shall be filed with or presented to the corporation or until the same shall be superseded by another written authorization of later dates. Duly accomplished proxies must be submitted to the Office of the Corporate Secretary not later than seven (7) working days prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting. Validation of proxies shall be conducted by the Proxy Validation Committee at least five (5) working days prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting. (As amended on October 11, 2005)

Section 6. Voting – Unless otherwise provided by law, each stockholder shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote, in person, through remote communication, in absentia, or be represented by proxy, for each share with voting right held by such stockholder. At all meetings of the stockholders, all elections and all questions, except in cases where other provisions is made by statute, or by the Articles of Incorporation, shall be resolved by the plurality vote of stockholders present in person, through remote communication, in absentia, or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present. Unless required by law, or demanded by a stockholder present in person, through remote communication, in absentia, or represented by proxy at any meeting, and entitled to vote thereat, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot, each ballot shall be signed by the stockholders voting, or in his name by his proxy if there by such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted by him. (As amended on March 25, 2022)

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Qualification and Term of Office – The general management of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Nine (9) directors who shall be stockholders holding at least one (1) share and who shall be elected annually by the stockholders entitled to vote to serve until the election and qualification of their successors. If any vacancy shall occur among the directors by reason of death, resignation, or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by the remaining directors at any meeting at which a quorum shall be present. Any such vacancy may also be filled by the stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting held during such vacancy. The stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting may also, in case of like mention, accept the resignation of any director and fill the vacancy thereby caused for the unexpired term. In case of a vacancy in the Board, the remaining directors shall continue to act, but if at any time their numbers be reduced to less than quorum, the remaining directors shall forthwith call a special meeting of the stockholders entitled to vote for the purpose of filling up such vacancy. Any director so chosen to fill the vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term only. (As amended on October 11, 2005)

No person shall qualify or be eligible for nomination or election to the Board of Directors if he is engaged in or connected with any business which competes with or is antagonistic to that of the Corporation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person shall be deemed to be so engaged or connected:

- (a) If he is an office, manager, director consultant, controlling person of, or the owner (either of record or beneficially) of 5% or more of any outstanding class of shares of, any other corporation or entity engaged in a business which the Board, by a majority vote, determines to be competitive or antagonistic to that of the Corporation; or
- (b) If the Board, in the exercise of its judgment in good faith, determines by a majority vote that he is the nominee of any person set forth in determining whether or not a person is a controlling person, beneficial owner, or the nominee of another, the Board may take into account such factors as business and family relationship. (As amended on April 10, 2006).

The Corporation shall have at least two (2) independent directors or at least twenty percent (20%) of the total membership of the Board of Directors, whichever is lesser, as required by law. (As amended on April 10, 2006)

(Last paragraph of Section 1 moved to 5th paragraph of Section 1.a) (As amended on May 18, 2007)

Section 1.a Nomination of Directors – The Board of Directors – The Board of Directors shall constitute a Nomination Committee consisting of at least three (3) members, one of whom shall be an independent director.

The Nomination Committee shall have the authority to promulgate and issue guidelines for the conduct of nominations.

Nominees to the Board of Directors, including independent directors, shall be submitted to the Nomination Committee for consideration by the latter prior to the annual stockholders' meeting or special meeting duly called for that purpose.

The Nomination Committee shall review the qualifications of the nominees for directors and prepare a final list of candidates.

For the proper implementation of the foregoing, all nominations to the Board of Directors shall be submitted in writing to the Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors at least thirty (30) working days before the date of the regular annual meeting of stockholders.

After such nomination process, the Nomination Committee shall prepare a Final List of Candidates containing all information about all nominees for directors, which list shall be available to the Securities and Exchange Commission and to all stockholders through the Information or Proxy Statement. The name of the person or group of persons who submitted a particular nominee's name shall be identified in such report including any relationship with the nominee.

Only nominees whose names appear on the Final List of Candidates shall be eligible for election as directors. No other nominations shall be entertained or allowed on the floor during the annual stockholders meeting. (As amended on May 18, 2007).

Section 2. Election of Directors – The directors of the Corporation shall be elected by majority vote at the annual meeting of the stockholders at which a quorum is present. At each election for directors every stockholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or by distributing such votes at the same principle among any number of candidates. (As amended on October 11, 2005)

Subject to existing laws, rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission or any stock exchange having jurisdiction over the Company, the conduct of election of directors shall be made in accordance with the standard election procedures contained in the By-Laws.

It shall be the responsibility of the Chairman of the Meeting to inform all stockholders of the requirement of electing independent directors. The Chairman of the Meeting shall ensure that the independent directors is elected during the stockholders' meeting.

Specific slots for independent directors shall not be filed up by unqualified nominees.

In case of failure of election for independent directors, the Chairman of the Meeting shall call a separate election during the same meeting to fill up the vacancy. (As amended on May 18, 2007)

Section 3. Place of Meetings – The Board of Directors may hold its meeting in the principal office or at such other places within or without the Republic of the Philippines as the Board may from time to time determine or as shall be specified or fixed in the respective notices or waivers of notice thereof.

Section 4. Meeting of the Board – Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such places and at such times as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine. If any day fixed for a regular meeting shall be a legal holiday at the place where the meeting is to be held, then the meeting which would otherwise be held on that day shall be held at the same hour on the next succeeding day not a legal holiday. (As Amended on March 25, 2022)

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time upon the request of the Chairman of the Board or President or by the person or persons calling the meeting, by advising him by word of mouth, by telephone, by telegraph, by electronic transmission of such meeting or by leaving notice of such meeting with him or at his residence or usual place of business, or by mailing it, postage prepaid and addressed to him at his residence as it appears upon the books of the corporation. Non-receipt of any such notice shall not invalidate any business done at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

Notice of regular or special meetings of directors must be sent to every director at least two days prior to the scheduled meeting, unless a different period is required by law or regulation. (As amended on March 25, 2022)

If at any meeting of the Board of Directors however called or wherever held, all of the directors at the time in the Philippines shall be present or shall before or after the Meeting waive notice of such meeting by a writing filed with the Secretary of the corporation, or after any such meeting shall consent to the holding of the meeting and all action taken thereat, then any and all action taken at such meeting shall be legal and validly taken.

Section 5. Quorum and Manner of Acting – A majority of the number of directors as fixed in the Articles of Incorporation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of corporate business, and every decision of at least a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall be valid as a corporate act, except for the election of officers which shall require the vote of a majority of all the members of the Board. In the absence of a quorum, the directors present may adjourn any meeting from time to time until a quorum could be attained. Notice of any such adjourned meeting need not be given. (As amended on August 12, 1985)

Section 6. Powers – The Board of Directors shall have such powers and authorities as are herein by these By-Laws or by statutes of the Philippines expressly conferred upon it.

Without prejudice to the general powers hereinabove conferred, the Board of Directors shall have the following powers:

- (a) Determine the period, manner and conditions under which the Corporation shall engage in the kinds of business comprised in the primary and secondary purposes of the Articles of Incorporation.
- (b) Determine the declaration of dividends out of profits or surplus.
- (c) Submit annually to the regular general meeting of the stockholders the Balance Sheet, Profit and Loss Statement, and Annual Report on the condition of the Corporation.
- (d) Call special meetings of stockholders.
- (e) Determine the time and manner of issuance of unissued stocks of the corporation.
- (f) Institute, maintain, defend, compromise or drop any litigation in which the Corporation or its officers may be interested as plaintiff or defendant, in connection with the business of the Corporation.

- (g) Delegate, from time to time, when not prohibited by law, any of the powers of the Board, in the course of the current businesses of the Corporation to any Committee or Special Committee or to any officer of the Corporation or agent, or management agreement and/or to appoint any person to be agents of the corporation with such powers (including the power of sub-delegate), and upon such terms as may be deemed fit.

The Board of Directors may create an executive committee of three (3) members from among the members of the Board and appoint the Chairman of the said Committee. Such committee shall, except as may otherwise be provided by law or by resolution of the Board of Directors, have and exercise all powers of the Board during the intervals between meetings of the full Board. Such committee may prescribe rules for its government; its meetings may be held at such place within or outside the Philippines as it may determine or authorize, and a majority of said committee at any meeting shall constitute a quorum. Members of the Executive Committee shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Board for attendance at said meetings. Regular minutes of acts and proceedings of the Executive Committee shall be kept by the Corporate Secretary who shall act as the Secretary of the Executive Committee. (As amended on March 20, 1985)

Section 7. Vacancy and Removal – In case of any vacancies in the Board of Directors, the remaining members of the Board of Directors constituting a quorum, may fill the same by the affirmative vote of a majority of such remaining members for the unexpired term subject, however, to the provisions of Section 1 of Article IV.

The stockholders of the corporation may at any special meeting depose or remove from office any director or directors, including any director or directors appointed by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 of Article IV and in case of any such removal the stockholders may choose a successor or successors to hold office for the unexpired term.

Section 8. Compensation – As compensation of the directors, the Board shall receive and allocate yearly an amount of not more than Two and a Half Percent (2.5%) of the net income after income tax of the corporation during the preceding year. Of the said 2.5%, One Percent (1%) shall be allocated to the members of the Board of Directors to be distributed share and share alike. The remaining One and Half Percent (1.5%) shall be allocated to the members of the Executive Committee to be distributed share and share alike. As approve by the stockholders representing at least a majority of the outstanding capital stock.

(Amended on April 10, 2006)

Section 9. Minutes – Minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors shall be kept and carefully preserved as a record of the business transacted at such meetings. The minutes shall contain such entries as may be required by law.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 1. Designations – The Board of Directors shall annually, at their first meeting, elect the following officers:

- (a) Execute on behalf of the Corporation contracts and agreements which the said Corporation may enter into;
- (b) Sign, endorse and deliver, in conjunction with other officials whom the Board may designate, all checks, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and orders of payments or sums of money in the name and on behalf of the Corporation;
- (c) Submit an annual report of the Corporation to the Board of Directors and at such other times as the latter may request, and an annual report to the stockholders at the annual meetings;
- (d) Appoint employees below the level of Assistant Vice-President; Exercise such other power and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may from time to time fix or delegate. (As amended on October 28, 2010)

Section 5. The President - The President who is elected by the Board from among their members shall be the Chief Operating Officer.

In the absence of the Chairman of the Board/CEO, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board and of the stockholders at which he shall be present. He shall have the following powers and duties:

- (a) Oversee the day to day operations of the corporation;
- (b) As may be authorized by the Chairman/CEO or the Board of Directors, execute on behalf of the Corporation contracts and agreements which the said Corporation may enter into;

- (c) Sign, endorse and deliver, in conjunction with other officials whom the Board may designate, all checks, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and orders of payments or sums of money in the name and on behalf of the Corporation;
- (d) Exercise such other power and perform such other duties as the Chairman/CEO or Board of Directors may from time to time fix or delegate. (As amended on October 28, 2010)

Section 6. Vice-Presidents, Senior Assistant Vice-Presidents and Assistant Vice-Presidents – Vice Presidents, Senior Assistant Vice-Presidents and Assistant Vice-Presidents shall be elected by the Board and shall have the following powers and duties:

- (a) Exercise direct supervision and control over the different departments of the Corporation that may be placed under their responsibility.
- (b) Exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors, the Chairman and/or the President may from time to time fix or delegate. (As amended on March 4, 2013 and on March 25, 2022)

Section 7. Treasurer - The Treasurer shall be elected by the Board of Directors and he may not be a stockholder of the Corporation. He shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board and he shall have the following powers and duties

- (a) Have custody of, and be responsible for, all the funds, securities and bonds of the Corporation and keep a complete and accurate record of transaction in the corresponding books of account of the Corporation, and see to it that all disbursements and expenditures are evidenced by appropriate vouchers.
- (b) Deposit in the name of and to the credit of the corporation in such banks as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors, all of the money, funds, securities, bonds and similar valuables belonging to the Corporation which may come under his control.
- (c) To receive and give receipts for all moneys paid to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and generally perform such other duties as may be required by the law or prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President.
- (d) Render an annual statement showing the financial condition of the Corporation on the 30th day of June of each year and such other financial reports as the Board of Directors or the President may from time to time require.

The Treasurer may delegate the duties of the office to an Assistant Treasurer with the approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Corporate Secretary and the Assistant Corporate Secretary - The Corporate Secretary and the Assistant Corporate Secretary shall be citizens and residents of the Philippines, shall be elected by the Board of Directors and they may or may not be a stockholder of the corporation. They shall hold the office at the pleasure of the Board, and they shall perform the following duties:

- (a) Keep full minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders;
- (b) Keep a stock and transfer book and the corporate seal, which he shall stamp on all documents requiring such seal of the Corporation;
- (c) Fill and countersign all the certificate of stock issued, making the corresponding annotations on the margin or stub certificates upon issuances;
- (d) Give, or cause to be given, all notices, required by law or by the By-Laws of the Corporation, as well as notice of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders;
- (e) Perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President. The Corporate Secretary may delegate the duties of the office to an Assistant Corporate Secretary with the approval of the Board of Directors. (As amended on March 4, 2013 and March 25, 2022)

Section 9. Vacancies and Delegation of Offices - If the office of the Chairman, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, or Secretary becomes vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, the remaining directors, if still constituting a quorum, by a majority vote may choose a successor or successors who shall hold office for the unexpired term.

In case of temporary absence of any officer of the Corporation or for any other reason that the Board of Directors may deem sufficient, the Board of Directors may delegate the powers and duties for the time being to any other officers, provided a majority of the Board concur therein and such delegation is not covered by any express prohibition of these By-Laws.

Vice-President and by the Treasurer or the Secretary. The Board of Directors may designate the person or persons to execute any such instruments on behalf of the corporation by the facsimile signature of such person or persons as may be designated by the Board of Directors or by any officers to whom such power of designation may have been delegated by the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors may provide that any such instruments may be sealed with the facsimile seal of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISION REGARDING DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Section 1. In the absence of fraud, no contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation and no act of the corporation, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in or are directors or officers of, such other corporation, and any director of the corporation who is also a director or officer of such other corporation or who is so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize or approve any such contract or transaction or act.

Section 2. Indemnification of directors and officers – The Company shall indemnify every director or officer, his heirs, executors and administrators against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (other than in action by the Company) to which he may be, or is, made a party by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Company, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct.

In the event of a settlement or compromise, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the company is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified did not commit a breach of duty as such director or officer.

The amount payable by way of indemnity shall be determined and paid only pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the Board.

The costs and expenses incurred in defending the aforementioned action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceedings as authorized in the manner provided for in the preceding paragraph upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized in this Section. (Amended August 12, 1985)

ARTICLE X DIVIDENDS AND FINANCES

Section 1. Dividends shall be declared only from the surplus profits of the corporation and shall be payable at such times and in such amounts as the Board of Directors shall determine, either in cash or in shares of the unissued stock of the company, or both, as said Board of Directors shall determine. No dividend which will impair the capital of the corporation shall be declared.

Section 2. All of the property of the corporation shall be liable for the just debts thereof but no holder of or subscriber for shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall as such be individually liable beyond the amount, if any, which may be due upon the share or shares of capital stock held or subscribed for by him.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENT TO BY-LAWS

The By-Laws of the corporation may be altered, amended, added to or replaced at any meeting of the stockholders by the vote of the majority of the subscribed stock, and no notice of such proposed change in the by-laws shall be necessary prior to such meeting, and any such changes shall become operative immediately upon the same being made, provided, however, that the power to amend, alter or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws may be delegated to the Board of Directors in the manner provided by law and any power delegated to the Board of Directors to amend or repeal any By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws shall be considered as revoked whenever a majority of the stockholders of the corporation shall so vote at a regular or special meeting.

ARTICLE XII FISCAL YEAR

The Fiscal Year of the corporation starts on January 1st and ends on December 31st of each year.

The foregoing by-laws were adopted by the unanimous consent of the owners of a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation at the first meeting of the shareholders held in the City of Manila, P.I., on the 17th day of June 1951.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the undersigned shareholders present at said meeting and voting thereat in favor of the adoption of said by-laws, have hereunto subscribed our names, and we, the Chairman of the meeting and the Secretary of the same do likewise with our signature attest.
