Clarification of News Report

We write with respect to the attached news article entitled “GMA Network slashes 2020 spending” posted in Inquirer.net on July 22, 2020. The article reported in part that:

“Television giant GMA Network Inc. is reducing spending this year due to the new coronavirus pandemic.

In an email to the Inquirer, GMA chair and CEO Felipe Gozon said the company would defer some P376 million in capital spending for 2020. The amount was mainly allotted for equipment upgrades.

He said the bulk of the company’s spending budget of P834 million would be used for its digital television transmitters.

. . . .”

This is to confirm the statement attributed to our Chairman and CEO Atty. Felipe L. Gozon.
