ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Section 1. Qualification and Term of Office	The general management of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Nine (9) directors who shall be stockholders holding at least one (1) share and who shall be elected annually by the stockholders entitled to vote to serve until the election and qualification of their successors. If any vacancy shall occur among the directors by reason of death, resignation, or for any other reason, such vacancy may be filled by the remaining directors at any meeting at which a quorum shall be present. Any such vacancy may also be filled by the stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting held during	-No change to the first paragraph - such vacancy. The stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting may also, in case of like mention, accept the resignation of any director and fill the vacancy thereby caused for the unexpired term. In case of a vacancy in the Board, the remaining directors shall continue to act, but if at any time their numbers be reduced to less than quorum, the remaining directors shall forthwith call a special meeting of the stockholders entitled to vote for the purpose of filling up such vacancy. Any director so chosen to fill the vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term only. (As amended on October 11, 2005)

Section 2. Indemnification of directors and officers	The Company shall indemnify every director or officer, his heirs, executors and administrators against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (other than in action by the Company) to which he may be, or is, made a party by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Company, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct. In the event of a settlement or compromise, indemnification shall be	-No change-

provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the company is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified did not commit a breach of duty as such director or officer.

The amount payable by way of indemnity shall be determined and paid only pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the Board.

The costs and expenses incurred in defending the aforementioned action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceedings as authorized in the manner provided for in the preceding paragraph upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized in this Section. (Amended August 12, 1985)

ARTICLE X DIVIDENDS AND FINANCES
Section 1.	Dividends shall be declared only from the surplus profits of the corporation and shall be payable at such times and in such amounts as the Board of Directors shall determine, either in cash or in shares of the unissued stock of the company, or both, as said Board of Directors shall determine. No dividend which will impair the capital of the corporation shall be declared.	-No change-
Section 2.	All of the property of the corporation shall be liable for the just debts thereof but no holder of or subscriber for shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall as such be individually liable beyond the amount, if any, which may be due upon the share or shares of capital stock held or subscribed for by him.	-No change-

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENT TO BY-LAWS
	The By-Laws of the corporation may be altered, amended, added to or replaced at any meeting of the stockholders by the vote of the majority of the subscribed stock, and no notice of such proposed change in the by-laws shall be necessary prior to such meeting, and any such changes shall become operative immediately upon the same being made, provided, however, that the power to amend, alter or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws may be delegated to the Board of Directors in the manner provided by law and any power delegated to the Board of Directors to amend or repeal any By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws shall be considered as revoked whenever a majority of the stockholders of the corporation shall so vote at a regular or special meeting.	-No change-
