The GMA Kapuso Foundation Prayer

Loving God, fount of goodness and compassion, We humbly come before You to offer our praise and thanks, for all the blessings that You have bestowed upon us. We thank You, most especially, for calling us to be men and women of service, sending us to others, as salt and light, to flavor life with hope and joy.

We pray that You renew us with Your loving presence, so that Your Peace may energize our souls. Bless and guide us, Your people at the GMA Kapuso Foundation, grow our hearts and make us instruments of Your love. Teach us the best way to share Your love to the least of our brothers and sisters.

We lift up to You, our Merciful Father, the most special of Your children; the poor and the needy, the broken and the homeless, the young, the aged, the sick, and the lonely. Heal their bodies, heal their hearts, heal their souls. Help them find love and protection in Your loving embrace.

We also entrust to Your utmost care our generous donors and partners, the companies, individuals, groups and organizations who ceaselessly journey with us in serving others the Kapusong Totoo way. Keep them in Your presence, and bring joy and peace to their generous hearts.

And as we continue to respond to the call of delivering Serbisyong Totoo, grant our Parent-Benefactor, the GMA Network, Inc., Your choicest blessings. Bless its leaders and personnel with Your strength and inspiration, so they may carry on supporting the work of the foundation and fulfill their mission to communicate Your love and graciousness, all for Your glory and in the service of Your people.

AMEN

Vision

We are the most accomplished, most trusted, and most credible non-government organization in the Philippines; the leader in serving and uplifting the lives of the underprivileged members of our society through Serbisyong Totoo and the responsible use of media.

Mission

We uplift the lives of underprivileged Filipinos all over the Philippines by:

- providing quick-response relief operations to fulfill the most immediate needs in times of crises;
- undertaking health, nutrition and medical projects to promote greater equity in health;
- carrying out developmental programs designed to promote education and foster learning.

We value our relationship with local, national, and international partners and recognize the impact they have in our capability to provide help to those who need it most.

We are committed in ensuring sustainable operations to enable us to continue being a "strong bridge" for our donors and beneficiaries by actively promoting the Foundation's initiative to solicit sufficient funding.

In doing so, we effectively bridge the distance that comes between those who need help and those who extend a helping hand. As such, we recognize the power of media and its role in eliciting compassion and a sense of responsibility from our donors and in promoting volunteerism among Filipinos and we shall continue to use it responsibly as a means to achieve our organizational goals.

*R*eaching out to as many people as we can each year would have been next to impossible without the enduring trust and support bestowed upon us by our sponsors, patrons and the public. Indeed, our partners and donors have been Kapusong Totoo through and through.

Message from the Chairman

With or without calamities, the work of your GMA Kapuso Foundation continues as we strive to enrich the lives of more and more kababayans all over our country each year.

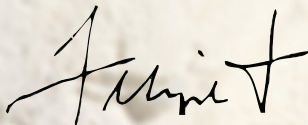

In our sincere effort to help people get back on their feet after a debilitating experience or a trying life situation, we make sure your Foundation works beyond providing immediate relief by staying behind and helping them rebuild their lives. The houses that we have turned over to the residents of the new Kapuso Village in Tacloban, as well as the rehabilitated and new classrooms we have provided to the people of Guiuan in 2014, less than a year after Yolanda struck our country, symbolize hope for the beneficiaries. It is our fervent wish that through our efforts, our kababayans would somehow be able to forget their unfortunate experiences and move forward, brimming with hope for a better, brighter future.

Reaching out to as many people as we can each year would have been next to impossible without the enduring trust and support bestowed upon us by our sponsors, patrons and the public. Indeed, our partners and donors have been Kapusong Totoo through and through, fuelling our public service efforts. In 2014, the financial and other resources entrusted to us by our supporters have been instrumental in allowing the GMAKF to be of service to more than 600,000 individuals through our various programs in Health, Disaster Relief, Education and Values Formation.

On behalf of the GMA Kapuso Foundation, I thank all of you once again, including our brave and dedicated staff and volunteers, who work tirelessly, with love for others in their hearts, in bringing the essence of Serbisong Totoo to the people.

Indeed, great things happen when our actions come from the heart.

Pagpalain nawa kayo ng Panginoon at mabuhay kayong lahat, mga Kapuso!

Message from the President

The year 2014 was highlighted by the fulfillment of the GMA Kapuso Foundation's commitment to help our countrymen recover from the unprecedented destruction brought about by numerous disasters that hit our nation in 2013; particularly super typhoon Yolanda.

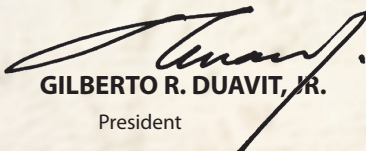

Barely a year after Yolanda, we were able to turn over 172 typhoon-resilient houses to the new residents of the Kapuso Village in Tacloban, Leyte, with an additional 231 units due for completion and turn-over within the first half of 2015. Work is also in full swing at our Kapuso Village in Palo, with 169 houses presently under construction. Further to this, 11 rehabilitated, and 4 new classrooms under our Kapuso School Development program were turned over to our kababayans in Guiuan, Eastern Samar within the year, with several more under construction as of this writing. It is gratifying to note that a number of Yolanda's victims were able to celebrate the holiday season and usher in 2015 in their new homes. Thanks to your generosity and the unwavering commitment of all our Team members and volunteers, they are now secured in homes you and your Foundation have provided.

In 2014, we were able to serve more than 600,000 through the various regular programs of the Kapuso Foundation. Under our Operation Bayanihan alone, 467,376 individuals from various parts of the country who were victims of typhoons, fires and other disasters received water, rice, canned food, clothing, hygiene kits and other basic necessities through our quick relief response.

Our Kalusugan Karavan medical missions and other monthly health projects, on the other hand, served 15,298 Filipinos all over the country. Unang Hakbang Sa Kinabukasan, meanwhile, provided school supplies to 76,016 incoming Grade 1 pupils from 1,747 selected public schools throughout the archipelago.

Indeed, so much has once again been accomplished by your Foundation, the details of which can be found in this report. None of these would have been possible without the continued support of our benefactors, donors, partners and volunteers. GMA Kapuso Foundation owes all the smiles, gratitude and appreciation expressed by our growing number of beneficiaries to you.

Maraming salamat sa inyong lahat sa patuloy ninyong pagtitiwala, mga Kapuso!

GMA Kapuso Foundation was the first non-government organization to turn over permanent concrete housing to Yolanda Survivors. For us at GMAKF, no task is so great nor so insurmountable when all our hearts are beating and burning as one in our commitment to the true spirit of Serbisyon Tootoo!

Message from the EVP/COO

The year 2014 was a respite of sorts from the previous year which was beset by calamities one after the other. And while the Kapuso Foundation was there to bring relief goods to our countrymen, who were affected by Typhoon Ruby in December, the year 2014 was, generally speaking, a year of keeping our promises to Yolanda victims.

And so, it was in November, the first anniversary of Typhoon Yolanda, that the first phase consisting of 123 housing units of the Tacloban Kapuso Village was finished and turned over to qualified beneficiaries. GMAKF was the first non-government organization to turn over permanent concrete housing to Yolanda Survivors. In October, the Palo Kapuso Village started construction and is scheduled to finish in November 2015.

Happy though we all are in achieving our goals, building homes is not without its difficulties. One cannot simply will it or simply have the genuine desire to make it a reality.

But because our goals were clear in wanting to alleviate the suffering of the people who lost their loved ones and their homes in Tacloban and fulfill our commitment to our donors, we have passed all the challenges. And I am happy to tell all of you that all 403 housing units of the Kapuso Village will be fully constructed in May of 2015.

In this report, we present to you stories of resilience, human strength and hope from survivors of Yolanda and other beneficiaries of our concerted efforts to help the poor.

The “Year at a Glance” page will briefly outline the many medical projects that we held all over the country which lessened the suffering of sick people or prevented the onset of disease.

You will also find therein the expanded scope of our “Unang Hakbang Sa Kinabukasan” project, the “Kapuso School Development Project” and our quick response to the failed Mayon Volcano eruption, to fires and to other calamities.

With great gratitude, and humble pride, we share this annual report with you. You have made our efforts to bridge the gap between those who need help and those who are willing to help much easier.

For us at GMAKF, no task is so great nor so insurmountable when all our hearts are beating and burning as one in our commitment to the true spirit of Serbisyong Totoo!

Again, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts, for sharing this year with us and for sharing with us your love for our fellow Filipinos.

Building a New Future

Every day, 29-year-old Melvin Castro would walk along the rows of identical blue townhouses in Barangay Sto. Niño in the outskirts of Tacloban City to the village engineering office, where a number of his neighbors are playing basketball on a makeshift ring.

At first, Melvin could only watch them play. He was unsure whether he still has it in himself to play and be happy. The burden of loss still weighed heavily on his shoulders.

Melvin is a Yolanda survivor. On that fateful day, he lost 18 of his family members, including his mother, grandmother, five siblings, one sister-in-law, 8 nieces and nephews, a cousin and that cousin's wife.

It has been more than a year since then, but until now, he still feels guilty for not being able to save them.

The Most Powerful Storm

The night Super typhoon Yolanda crashed into Tacloban, Melvin and 23 of his extended family were all huddled in their two-story concrete house in Barangay 88, praying to God for the torrential rains and the howling winds to stop.

"Nag-stay kami sa bahay kasi nagtitiwala kami sa Panginoon na walang mangyayari sa amin. Sobra-sobra ang pagtitiwala namin sa Panginoon. 'Di namin akalain na magkakaroon ng tubig sa oras na iyon, kaya wala rin kaming nagawa. (We stayed in the house because we put our faith in God that nothing bad will happen to us. We held on to our great faith in God. We didn't anticipate that flood waters would enter our house. We couldn't do anything.)" Melvin, the eldest of eight siblings, shares.

The first tsunami-like wave hit their house from over 20 feet. By the time the second wave crashed, they were all swept away into the sea.

"Nakikita ko pa 'yung mga kapatid ko, sina nanay, sina tatay, pero unti-unti na silang lumalayo sa akin. Sa sobrang lakas ng hangin at alon, hindi mo na alam kung saan ka pwedeng kumapit. Ang nasa isip ko lang noon, kung oras ko na talaga, bahala na ang Panginoon. (I can still see my siblings, my mother, and my father, but they were floating farther away. The wind and the waves were so strong, you don't know what to hold on to. All I can think of was that if this was my time, then let the Lord's will be done.)," Melvin remembers.

The Days After

"Awa ng Diyos, naka-survive naman, 'yun nga lang kapalit ng 18. (By the mercy of God, I survived, but at the cost of my 18 relatives.), Melvin laments.

Only six of them survived the most powerful storm to ever hit the country. His father, overcome with grief for his wife and children, could not be spoken to for months.

In the aftermath of the storm, Melvin found himself spontaneously breaking down in tears, consumed with pain and despair.

To help what remained of his family recover from the loss, Melvin picked himself up and tried his luck in Manila. He took on construction jobs, filling in as "extra" when the crew was short. But the pay was small and the jobs were few.

Apocalyptic

Super typhoon Yolanda ripped the Visayas apart. With winds of more than 350 kilometers per hour, it left more than 6,000 people dead and at least a million houses shattered. Those who survived the nightmare had to live in tent cities, struggling every day to keep sane amidst the apocalyptic destruction that surrounds them.

GMA Kapuso Foundation was one of the first Non-Government Organizations (NGO) on the ground. GMAKF deployed advance teams to Leyte and Iloilo even before the storm hit. They were the first to provide relief assistance to survivors.

But other than the immediate needs, GMAKF also immediately started organizing its long-term rehabilitation projects. Two weeks after the storm, GMAKF coordinated with the Tacloban City government to secure land for a relocation site for a permanent housing project for typhoon victims.

Even before the storm, the city government, together with the National Housing Authority (NHA), had been developing the Tacloban North Resettlement Project for settlers living within the no-build zone near the airport.

The ten-hectare piece of land was located north of Tacloban City, 15 kilometers inland. The NHA committed 2.5 hectares of this land to be the site of GMAKF's Kapuso Village, where 403 houses will be constructed for storm survivors.

The Kapuso Village in Palo, Leyte, meanwhile, will provide 169 houses for Yolanda victims.

Building the Future

It was a fateful day when Melvin received a call from his brother Marlon in Tacloban. Their family was chosen as one of the beneficiaries of the Kapuso Village in Tacloban.

Another good news, Marlon got a job as a poultry feed salesman.

Energized by their stroke of luck, Melvin returned to Tacloban to fulfill the 500 hours of construction work pledged by the beneficiaries as "sweat equity" before they receive their new home. In the process, they would learn construction skills such as carpentry and masonry, which they could use when seeking employment later on.

Melvin barely knew construction work then. But he diligently followed every instruction of their foreman. He was, after all, not just building their new home, he was also building their future.

"Malaking bagay para sa amin. Noong panahon na 'yun, walang bahay, walang kahit ano. Noong nakapasok kami sa foundation, malaking pasasalamat. Kasi sa dami ng gustong mabigyan ng bahay, kami ang napili. (It was a big deal for us. At that time, we didn't have a house, we didn't have anything. When we were chosen, we were extremely grateful. Out of the many who wanted a house, we were chosen.)," Melvin shares.

Every time Melvin pushed his spade in to mix the cement, he counted his blessings. In a way, the hard work had become his therapy.

"Inaraw-araw ko po 'yung pagpasok dito para kahit papaano, makalimutan ko 'yung mga nangyari sa amin habang lumilipas ang araw. (I come to work every day so I can forget the terrible things that happened as the days passed.), says Melvin.

New Memories

On November 8, 2014, the first anniversary of Super typhoon Yolanda, a new memory was created for Melvin's family and 171 other beneficiary families. On that day, they can now recall the moment they transferred into their new homes and started their new lives.

Most of them were informal settlers of Barangay 88 who used to live in makeshift houses within the high risk zones across the bay of Tacloban. They were mostly fishermen, pedicab drivers, and vendors. Not a single family in the barangay was able to save their properties.

GMAKF is the first NGO to turnover permanent concrete housing to Yolanda survivors in Tacloban City. The first 49 houses of Phase I was granted to selected beneficiaries in July 2014. An additional 231 houses of the 403-unit concrete housing project will be ready for occupancy in the middle of May 2015. In the Kapuso Village in Palo, 169 units are now being constructed.

Kapuso School Development (KSD) Project

Under the Kapuso School Development Project, the GMAKF had already turned over 4 new classrooms and 11 rehabilitated classrooms in Barangay Sulangan, Guiuan, Eastern Samar. Another 32 classrooms are also being constructed in Quinapondan, Eastern Samar, and Villaba and Kananga in Leyte.

Quality Homes

The project owes its success to the generosity of numerous volunteers and donors all over the world, as well as the participation of the NHA and the Local Government Units of Tacloban and Palo.

The Kapuso Village represents the generosity and compassion of Filipinos to uplift the lives of their countrymen. It also represents the individual strength of each survivor who picked himself up after the storm and helped himself build a new future.

Moving forward

For Melvin, although he still prays for his 18 dead relatives each day, he knows he can't wallow in depression. He has to move on with his life. He still has six more family members to take care of.

And so every day he plays basketball with his new neighbors in the Kapuso Village in Tacloban. Basketball helps him cope with despair.

And every day, he thanks God that he's alive and that he has a new home to start his second life with.

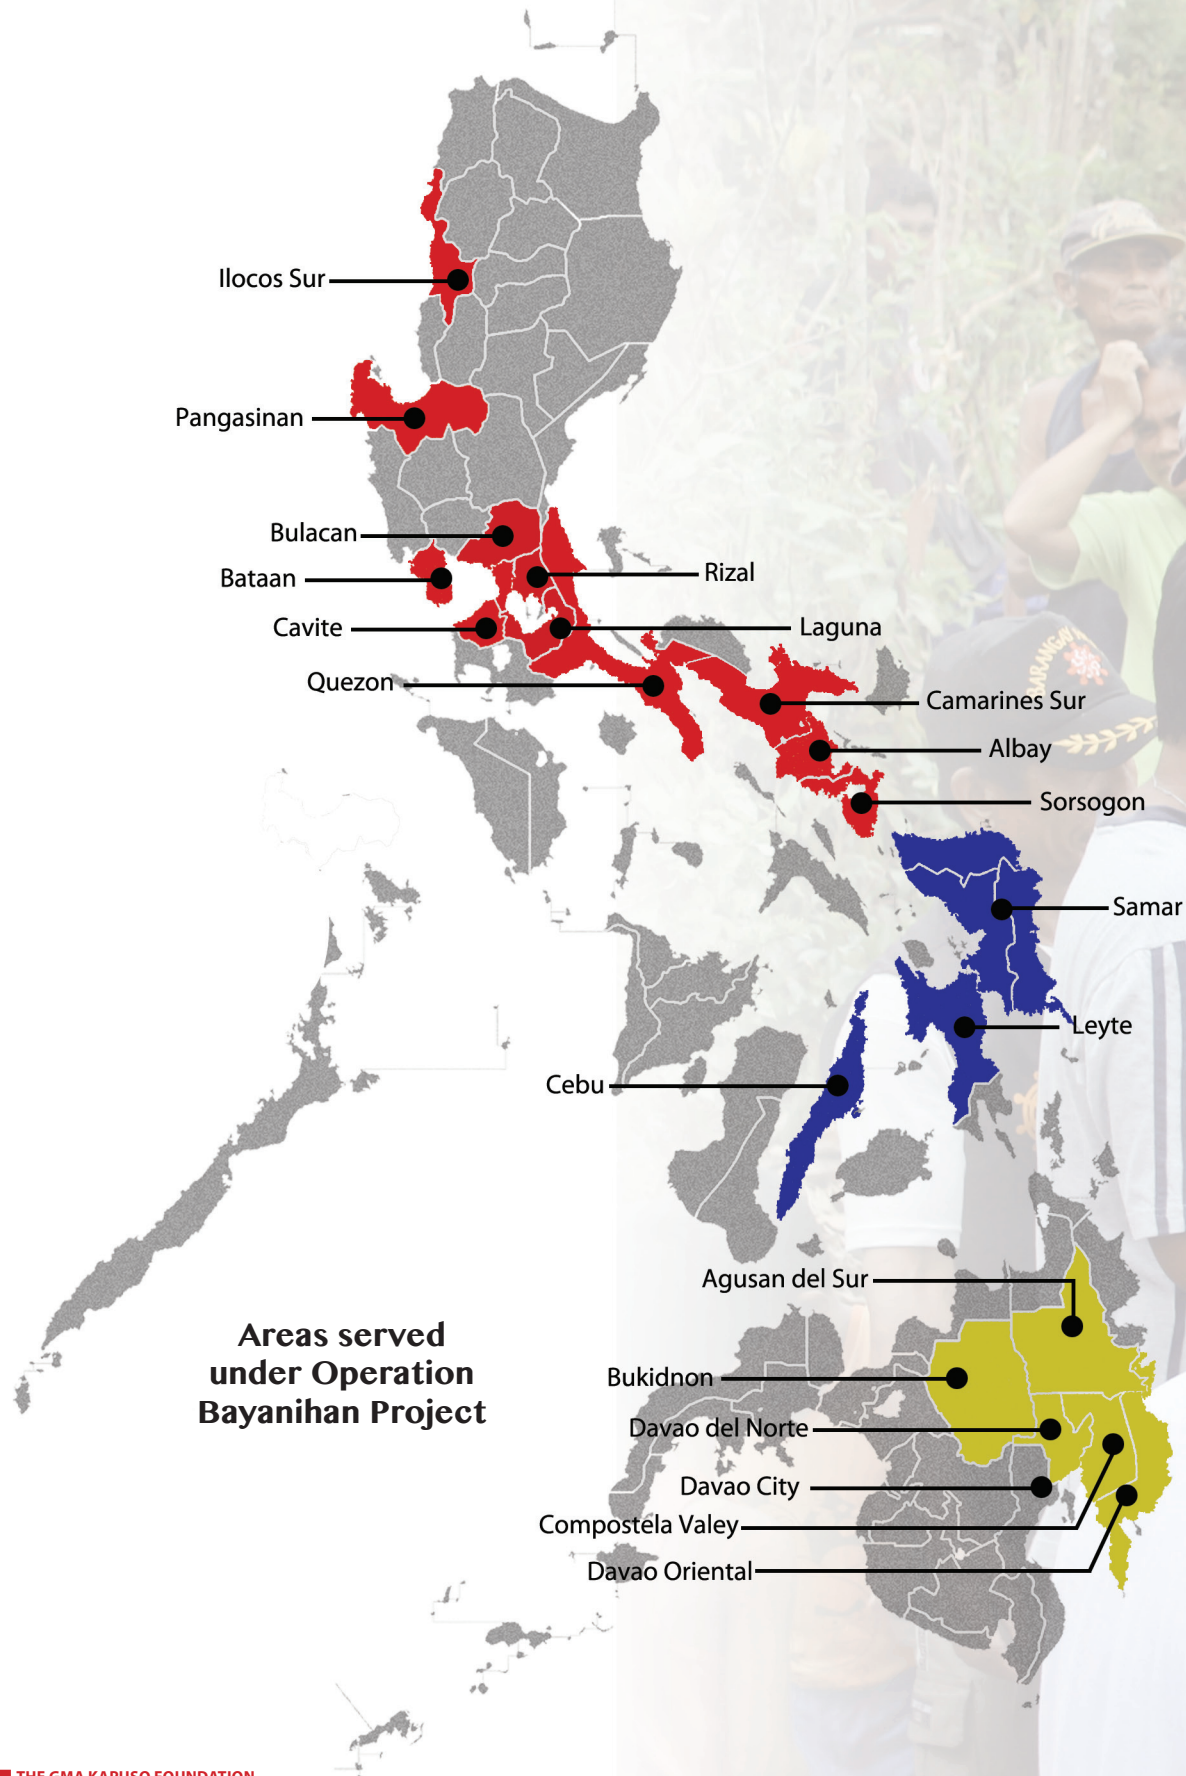

"Maraming, maraming salamat talaga sa Panginoon sa panibagong buhay na ipinagkaloob Niya sa'kin. Hindi ko ito sasayangin. Sa bawat araw na lumilipas, maraming nagbabago sa'yo. (I'm very grateful to the Lord for the new life that He gave me. I will not waste it. With each passing day, there's a new hope in me.)," shares Melvin.

PAROL: FINDING LIGHT IN THE DARKEST CHRISTMAS

When Typhoon Ruby slammed into Eastern Visayas last December, it was as if we were all reliving a nightmare. It was only a month after we commemorated the anniversary of the devastation caused by Super typhoon Yolanda. The region was only starting to reap the benefits of efforts for normalcy, when another massive storm hit, barely three weeks before Christmas.

The GMA Kapuso Foundation (GMAKF) staff was on the ground immediately after the storm passed.

Residents of Barangay Caybago were cut off from the rest of Calbayog City in Western Samar after the storm. The bridge that served as their only connection to the city was heavily damaged. We found residents on small boats crossing the river to bring potable water and food to their families.

Everywhere we went, we saw broken down houses, fallen trees, and shattered roads. But what pierced our hearts the most were the broken spirits of residents we met.

In Dolores, Eastern Samar, we found families struggling to keep dry in their homes while it rained. Most of the houses barely had any piece of roof left intact. Here we met Vivian Caspe and her family. Her children and grandchildren were all huddled in a small corner of their house where there was still a roof left. Most of them were fighting off cough or fever.

Her neighbor Aiza Lucero, meanwhile, lamented the absence of Christmas for their family. Their house was in tatters and most of their possessions were lost or destroyed in the storm. She said they were finding it hard to feel the spirit of Christmas in the middle of all the destruction. Their family Christmas tree was still buried underneath the rubble of their house.

In Barangay Pagbalikan in Calbayog City, we met Maricel Repamonte, a young mother whose Christmas season turned into a nightmare after a palm tree crashed on top of their home, killing her three-month-old child. Maricel shared, "Pinapatulog ko'yung bata. Bigla na lang natumba'yung buri. Naipit kami sa ilalim. (I was putting the baby to sleep. Suddenly, the palm tree fell on top of our house. We were buried underneath.)"

To provide relief and help the residents feel the spirit of the Christmas season, GMAKF immediately started distributing relief goods as part of its Operation Bayanihan in different parts of Samar, Sorsogon, and Leyte. A total of 138,828 individuals received relief goods, clothes, food, water, medicine, and other basic supplies. In Dolores, Eastern Samar alone, 7,000 residents were served.

Give a Gift: Parol

But while many were broken, we also found stories of hope in the survivors of Typhoon Ruby.

In Dolores, Samar, we found a young boy sitting quietly amidst his lopsided nipa home. He was busy cutting pieces of colored paper for his home-made parol. His name was Marco Playon. And although they barely had a decent home and minimal possessions, he was still looking forward to celebrating Christmas. His only wish was that their family, who all survived the storm, stay together.

"Hiling ko po hindi kami magkahiwa-hiwalay para masaya. (I wish that we would never be separated so we'll be happy.)" Marco says.

Marco's mother, Mishel, said the family remained thankful that all of them survived the storm.

"Bahay lang ang nawala sa amin. Masaya kami basta kaming buong pamilya, sama-sama pa rin sa Pasko. (Only our house was lost. We are happy as long as our family's complete; we can still celebrate Christmas together.)" says Mishel.

This spirit of Filipino resilience touched our hearts at GMAKF, so we visited Marco and his family again before Christmas. He and his four siblings were among the many beneficiaries of the Give-a-Gift: Alay sa Batang Pinoy project from the hard hit areas of Typhoon Ruby. They were given Noche Buena packages of food, clothes, school uniforms, school supplies, and medicines to help them celebrate Christmas.

"Akala ko kasi walang-wala na talaga. Magpa-Pasko na, akala ko ganito lang kami. Dahil sa inyo, naging merry na merry ang Christmas namin. (I thought we would have nothing for Christmas. But because of you, our Christmas became merrier.) says Mishel.

CREATING A BRIGHTER FUTURE

BEFORE

Whenever Joan Estrada looks at her three-year-old son Mark Anthony Tripoli, it is always with a heart full of hope for his future.

Her eldest child, a vibrant and energetic young boy, is just starting to dream, just starting to explore the world around him. He loves playing outdoor with his neighbors in their new home in Baseco, Manila. He is never without a smile on his face. And his laughter is easily contagious.

But this has not always been the case.

Only half a year ago, Mark Anthony could never be seen outside the walls of their old house in Rodriguez, Rizal. He could never be encouraged to play with other kids. The young boy always chose to hide himself.

Because half a year ago, Mark Anthony had a giant mass, almost the size of his face, growing on the right side of his neck. It weighed almost a kilogram.

It broke Joan's heart to see his son hiding himself. Her high hopes for his future replaced with heartbreaking pity.

She remembered noticing a small lump on her son's neck immediately after giving birth to him in their home. No newborn screening was done and no vaccines were given. According to Joan, the health workers from their local center refused to give his son vaccines because these might have adverse side effects on the mass.

Weeks after giving birth, she brought Mark to the National Children's Hospital. The mass on his neck, meanwhile, slowly increased in size. He was treated with palliative therapy. For two years, he was given Bleomycin injections to reduce the size of the mass. But it was to no avail. Slowly, the small mass on his neck grew larger and more prominent.

On October 2014, Joan decided to bring Mark to East Avenue Medical Center. While waiting in the Outpatient Department, she was approached by a kind-hearted lawyer who then introduced her to head and neck surgeon Dr. Rene Gutierrez for consultation and diagnosis.

Mark was diagnosed with Cystic Hygroma, a rare disorder most often formed while the baby is still in the womb. Usually appearing on the baby's neck or head, cystic hygromas are accumulated fluid due to blockages in the body's lymphatic drainage. If left untreated, the mass could obscure Mark's breathing and even impede his speech. He had to undergo immediate surgery.

It was also Dr. Gutierrez who suggested that Joan seek medical assistance from Kapuso Foundation, which then helped her in securing the required clearances and diagnostic examinations for her son's operation.

On December 16, 2014, Mark underwent a successful wide excision operation with facial reconstruction to fully remove the cystic hygroma. After weeks of observation, he was finally discharged from the hospital, three days before New Year's Day.

Now, he looks as normal as any three-year-old boy. Not a trace of the giant mass on his neck. In his face, Joan could only see a vibrant smile. And in her heart, there's renewed hope for his brightening future.

It was the greatest New Year's Day gift for both mother and son. "Mas masaya po 'yung Bagong Taon namin ngayon dahil wala na po siyang bukol sa leeg, (Our New Year's is much happier now because the mass on his neck has been removed.)" Joan says. "Tumaba po siya, naging malakas po siyang kumain. Makakapag-aral na po siya nang maayos. (He's healthier, he has a better appetite. He can now focus on his studies.)"

ACROSS THE WATERS

Off the coast of the island of Biayagayag in Cebu, Raffy Balendes would diligently row himself and his four siblings across the sea every morning. Using only a long bamboo pole, he would endure the pain on his young arms as he ferried them to Bantayan Island, where all five children attend school.

“Pag umaga, hihiram kami ng bangka sa kapitbahay. (In the morning, we would borrow our neighbor’s boat),” Raffy says.

Raffy is in sixth grade in Sulangan Elementary School. His younger siblings are in first grade.

After class, Raffy would fetch his four siblings and prepare to take them home. But in the afternoon, the tides are low and there is no more boat to take them home.

“Pag umuwi, naglalakad po kami sa dagat. Minsan po malalim ang tubig, mahirap pong tumawid. (When we go home, we would cross the ocean on foot. Sometimes, the water would get too deep, it gets difficult to cross),” Raffy shares.

At some point, the children would have to wade through chest deep waters just to get home to their island barangay; their backpacks are hoisted above their heads to keep these from getting wet. Sometimes, Raffy would even have to carry some of his siblings on his back because the water gets too deep.

But despite the hardships, Raffy is still determined to go to class every day.

“Pero gusto po naming mag-aral kahit mahirap. Kasi gusto po naming makatapos ng pag-aaral. (But we want to go to school even though it’s difficult. Because we want to finish our studies.),” says Raffy.

This steadfast determination is one of the reasons why GMA Kapuso Foundation continues to serve these underserved students through the Unang Hakbang sa Kinabukasan (UHSK) project. Raffy and his siblings are just five of the many school children from Bantayan Island who received Kapuso backpacks containing a complete set of school supplies consisting of 5 notebooks, 2 writing pads, 2 pencils, a crayon set, sharpener and eraser.

It is the hope of UHSK that through these Kapuso backpacks, students like Raffy and his siblings would continue to strive to quench their thirst for knowledge despite the overwhelming sea of setbacks they must cross. All in the hope of a brighter future, where they can rise above it all.

INDIVIDUALS SERVED IN 2014

Sagip Dugtong Buhay is the annual bloodletting project of the Kapuso Foundation, in partnership with the Philippine Red Cross. It promotes volunteerism through blood donation to help save lives.

Running for six years now, the GMAKF and the GMA Corporate Affairs mounted its bloodletting activity with the theme, "Puso ang Una" on February 22. Held at the GMA Studio 4, the event opened with a short program where GMAKF EVP and COO Mel C. Tiangco encouraged employees and talents to share a part of them through blood donation. The Engineering Department had the most number of successful blood donors with 57 employees donating blood. A total of 306 blood bags (136,600 cc) were collected during the event.

The GMA regional satellite stations in Cebu, Davao, Dagupan, Iloilo, Bicol, Ilocos, Cagayan de Oro, Bacolod, and General Santos City simultaneously conducted bloodletting activities in their respective areas, with the regional chapters of Philippine Red Cross as beneficiaries. They were able to collect a total of 949 blood bags (425,700 cc) in all the regional stations.

The Sagip Dugtong Buhay bloodletting project on Valentine month was held at the Ever Gotesco Mall on February 16. A total of 1,787 blood bags (798,250 cc) were generated for the Philippine Red Cross, which was a significant contribution in bringing hope to endangered lives. Successful blood donors received the 2014 limited edition GMAKF baller IDs.

In August, another Sagip Dugtong Buhay bloodletting project was held at the Ever Gotesco Mall, 1,871 blood bags (837,100 cc) were collected. The successful bloodletting activity was done in partnership with the Philippine Red Cross, Ever Gotesco Mall and Go Tong Foundation. Also in August, the GMA Kapuso Foundation was recognized by the Philippine Red Cross and awarded with a Testimonial Plaque, the highest award given by the Philippine Red Cross to its bloodletting project partners.

Give A Gift (GAG): Feed A Child

The annual Give A Gift: Feed A Child Project is a 120-day feeding program for pre-selected indigent children, wherein they are given free lunch daily, complete with milk and vitamins.

During the different medical missions and relief operations in Leyte and Samar, volunteer doctors and the GMAKF staff observed child malnutrition in the evacuation centers. Thus, GMAKF chose Jaro, Leyte and Basey, Samar as recipients of the feeding program for 2014, launched during the Nutrition Month in July.

Values Formation Program

Three hundred undernourished pupils, accompanied by their mothers, attended the event. The event was marked with a Memorandum of Agreement signed by their respective Municipal Mayor, District Supervisor, and Nutrition Officer.

For 120 days, these children received daily lunch, milk, and vitamins, which resulted to significant weight improvements and better school performance. Ninety-six percent or 288 students gained an average weight of 3.35 kilograms. Twelve students maintained their weight due to different illnesses such as dengue, flu, measles, as well as the physical toll of travelling for long distances to go to school.

Give A Gift (GAG): Surgical

Forty-eight girls and boys from Metro Manila received free hernia and other congenital surgical operations at the Philippine Children's Medical Center. Twenty three children were also operated in Bayawan District Hospital in Negros Oriental.

Through its partner, Pinoy Doctors, the project was able to reach out to indigent children with hernia and other congenital defects whose parents have long lost hope for their children's treatment due to lack of resources.

Kapuso Cancer Champions (formerly Give A Gift: Cancer Kids)

Together with GMAKF's longtime partner Go Tong Foundation, the new batch of Kapuso Cancer Champions (KCC) for 2014 was launched at the Ever Gotesco Mall in Commonwealth, Quezon City on October 29. Twenty-four indigent children with cancer were chosen to receive free chemotherapy assistance. Incorporated in the project launch were storytelling activities, games, and special numbers from Chummy Chum mascot and GMA teen stars Bea Binene and Ken Chan.

Give A Gift (GAG): Distribution of Noche Buena package

For this year's GAG, substantial allocation was given to the Visayas Region, which was largely affected by Typhoon Yolanda. The GMAKF was able to spread Christmas joy to different Yolanda-affected municipalities in Leyte, Eastern and Western Samar, Iloilo, and Cebu during the first year anniversary of the super typhoon.

In addition, the GMAKF served areas affected by armed conflict in Zamboanga and Sultan Kudarat. Families from selected municipalities in Bohol that were hit by the earthquake in October 2013 were also given Noche Buena packages. The GMAKF teams also explored indigenous communities in Lanao Del Sur, Bukidnon, Rizal, Ifugao, Romblon, Apayao and Camiguin.

Noche Buena packages were distributed to a total of 70,000 children from all over the country, including the children of incarcerated mothers in Women's Correctional.

The Give A Gift (GAG) Alay sa Batang Pinoy Christmas Project is the annual Christmas gift giving project of the GMA Kapuso Foundation. Yearly, the GMA Kapuso Foundation identifies the beneficiaries from the 7 sectors namely: Children with Congenital Defects, Children from Indigenous Communities, Malnourished Children, Children with Cancer, Children of Incarcerated Mothers, Children of Farmers and Fisher-folks and Children living in Conflict Areas. Each Child receives a Christmas Package of Noche Buena packs.

Other Christmas activities for GMAKF kids:

On December 6, twenty-two (22) selected children beneficiaries of Kapuso Cancer Champions and Subjects of Appeal cases were invited by GMAKF partner Go Tong Foundation to their yearly Christmas party for kids at the Ever Gotesco Mall in Commonwealth, Quezon City. They were treated to fun games and entertainment numbers from GMA teen stars.

As a holiday treat from GMAKF partner JG Summit, 63 children of incarcerated mothers were given a one-day pass at Tom's World, a gaming arcade and amusement center in Ortigas.

For the Christmas season, the yearly Noel Bazaar formally opened on November 14 to 29 at the World Trade Center in Pasay City. GMAKF EVP and COO Mel C. Tiangco, together with GMA Kapuso stars Tom Rodriguez and Carla Abellana, graced the event. The Bazaar also featured GMAKF's Celebrity Ukay Ukay with Tom and Carla as new endorsers for the year. Thirty (30) Grade 1 pupils from Minuyan Elementary School and San Francisco, Bulacan received special gifts from Cut Unlimited, Inc.

The traditional Christmas soup kitchen and party for kids of the news program 24 Oras was held at the GMA Castrillo Gate. Held every December 24, this year's party was for the 100 children who were relocated to a remote barangay in Rizal because of Typhoon Ondoy. The GMAKF gave away toys, hygiene products, and school supplies for the children, and relief goods with laundry soap to be shared to their families.

Kapuso ng Kalikasan (KNK)

Kapuso ng Kalikasan is a community-based environmental awareness program and tree planting project done mostly in areas where GMAKF rebuild schools damaged by calamities and disasters.

Together with the Kalipi Women's Organization, 350 seedlings of fruit-bearing trees were planted in Sitio Hoyohoy, Brgy. Busay, Cebu City, which was identified by the Municipal Environment and National Resources Office as a flood-prone area. Seedlings were donated by the City Agriculture Department of Cebu City.

Residents of Sulangan, Guiuan, Eastern Samar requested assistance for the revitalization of their mangroves, which serves as the sanctuary of fishes and other sea creatures. Six hundred seedlings were planted in a mangrove protected area by school officials and students of Sulangan Central Elementary School on July 23. Meanwhile, 20 hardwood trees were planted around the school grounds of Sulangan National High School during the inauguration of the rehabilitated and newly-constructed classrooms on July 25.

For this year, a total of 970 seedlings were planted under the Kapuso ng Kalikasan Project and during the inaugural tree planting activities for the KSD schools and Kapuso Villages.

The accompanying financial statements of the Foundation were approved and authorized for issue by the Board of Trustees on March 30, 2015.

2. Basis of Preparation, Statement of Compliance and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Preparation and Statement of Compliance

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis. The financial statements are presented in Philippine peso, which is the Foundation's functional and presentation currency. Amounts are rounded off to the nearest peso, except when otherwise indicated.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Philippine Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities (PFRS for SMEs).

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and in banks. Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with original maturities of three months or less and that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Short-term Investments

Short-term investments include highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with original maturities of more than three months but less than one year from dates of acquisition and subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Basic and Other Financial Instruments

Basic and other financial assets and liabilities are recognized when the entity becomes a party to the contracts.

Initial Measurement. Basic financial instruments are measured at transaction price including transaction costs. If the contract constitutes a financing arrangement, it is measured at the present value of future payments discounted at a market rate of interest for a similar instrument, unless the assets and liabilities are classified as current and do not incorporate a finance arrangement. If interest is not at a market rate, the fair value would be future payments discounted at a market rate of interest.

Other financial instruments are initially measured at fair value, which is usually their transaction price, and exclude transaction costs.

Subsequent Measurement. The subsequent measurement of the basic financial instruments are as follows:

- Debt instruments, such as an account, note, or loan receivables or payables, are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method;
- Commitments to receive a loan are measured at cost less impairment; and

All other financial instruments are measured at fair value at reporting date, except for equity instruments (and related contracts that would result in delivery of such instruments) that are not publicly traded and whose fair value cannot be reliably determined which are measured at cost less impairment.

The Foundation's basic financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, receivables, accounts payable and other current liabilities (excluding payable to government agencies) and due to GMA Network, Inc. The Foundation has no other financial instruments measured at fair value.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value.

The initial cost of property and equipment comprises its purchase price and other directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of such property and equipment when that cost is incurred if the recognition criteria are met. It excludes the costs of day-to-day servicing.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method, net of any estimated residual value, over the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

Office equipment	2-3 years
Transportation equipment	4 years
Communication equipment	3 years
Office furniture and fixtures	3 years

If there is an indication that there has been a significant change in depreciation rate, useful life or residual value of an asset, the depreciation of that asset is revised prospectively to reflect the new expectations.

An item of property and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising from derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is credited or charged to current operations in the year the asset is derecognized.

Fully depreciated assets are retained in the accounts until these are no longer in use and no further depreciation is charged to current operation.

Asset Impairment

At each reporting date, property and equipment is reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If there is an indication of possible impairment, the recoverable amount of any affected asset (or group of related assets) is estimated and compared with its carrying amount. If estimated recoverable amount is lower, the carrying amount is reduced to its estimated recoverable amount, and an impairment loss is recognized immediately in the statement of receipts and expenses.

If an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or group of related assets) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount (selling price less costs to complete and sell, in the case of inventories), but not in excess of the amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or group of related assets) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Accounts Payable and Other Current Liabilities

Accounts payable and other current liabilities are obligations on the basis of normal credit terms and do not bear interest. These are recognized in the period in which the related money, goods or services are received or when a legally enforceable claim against the Foundation is established or when the corresponding assets or expenses are recognized.

Fund Balance

Fund balance represents the cumulative balance of the excess of receipts over expenses.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue comprises of donations, receipts for projects and interest income (collectively referred to as “receipts”). Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Foundation and the amount can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Projects and Donations. Projects are donations received to fund specific program of the Foundation. Donations are general fund that is used to finance any program, including medical assistance, of the Foundation. Projects and donations are recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the donation will flow to the Foundation, which in most cases is upon receipt of the donation from the donors. Donations in-kind are given to designated donees immediately.

Interest. Revenue is recognized as the interest accrues, taking into account the effective yield on the asset.

Expenses

Expenses are recognized as incurred.

Project costs and donation expenses are recognized on the basis of a direct association between the cost incurred and revenue recognized by the Foundation.

Pension Costs

The Foundation has an unfunded, noncontributory retirement plan covering its permanent employees. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using the projected unit credit actuarial valuation method. The pension cost is recognized during the employee's period of service and discounted using the market yields on government bonds. Actuarial gains and losses are recognized in the statement of receipts and expenses for the period.

Foreign Currency-denominated Transactions

Foreign currency gains and losses are reported on a net basis. Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded using the closing exchange rate at the dates of transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are restated using the closing exchange rate at the reporting date. All differences are taken to the statement of receipts and expenses. Nonmonetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates as at the dates of the initial transactions.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Foundation has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Where the Foundation expects a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset but only when the receipt of the reimbursement is virtually certain.

Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the financial statements. These are disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements but are disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Events after the Reporting Date

Post year-end events that provide additional information about the Foundation's financial position at the reporting date (adjusting events) are reflected in the financial statements. Post year-end events that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to financial statements when material.

3. Significant Accounting Judgments, Estimates and Assumptions

The Foundation's financial statements require management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and related notes. Future events may occur which may cause the assumptions used in arriving at the estimates to change. The effects of any change in estimates are reflected in the financial statements as these become reasonably determinable.

Judgments, estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Judgments

Management makes judgments in the process of applying the Foundation's accounting policies. The Foundation does not have significant judgments on the reported amounts in the financial statements as at and for the years ended in 2014 and 2013.

Estimates and Assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities, within the next financial year, are described below.

Estimating Useful Lives of Property and Equipment. The Foundation estimates the useful lives of property and equipment based on the period over which the assets are expected to be available for use. The estimated useful lives of property and equipment are reviewed periodically and are updated if expectations differ from previous estimates due to physical wear and tear, technical or commercial obsolescence and legal or other limits on the use of the assets. In addition, estimation of the useful lives of property and equipment is based on collective assessment of industry practice, internal technical evaluation and experience with similar assets. It is possible, however, that future results of operations could be materially affected by changes in estimates brought about by changes in the factors mentioned above. The amounts and timing of recorded expenses for any period would be affected by changes in these factors and circumstances. A reduction in the estimated useful lives of property and equipment would increase recorded expenses and decrease noncurrent asset.

There were no changes in the estimated useful lives of property and equipment in 2014 and 2013.

Impairment of Property and Equipment. Impairment testing is performed whenever there is an indication that the assets are impaired. Determining the net recoverable value of assets requires the estimation of cash flows expected to be generated from the continued use and ultimate disposition of such assets. While it is believed that the assumptions used in the estimation of fair values reflected in the financial statements are appropriate and reasonable, significant changes in these assumptions may materially affect the assessment of recoverable values and any resulting impairment loss could have a material adverse impact on the Foundation's statement of receipts and expenses.

No impairment loss was recognized in 2014 and 2013. The carrying value of property and equipment amounted to ₱500,206 and ₱160,736 as at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively (see Note 6).

Assumptions on Pension Costs. The determination of the Foundation's pension liability and pension costs is dependent on the selection of certain assumptions used by actuaries in calculating such amounts. Those assumptions are described in Note 12 and include, among others, discount rate and expected rate of salary increase. Actual results that differ from the assumptions are accumulated and recognized in the period in which it occurs.

Pension liability amounted to ₱1,433,539 and ₱920,959 as at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively (see Note 12).

4. Cash and Cash Equivalents and Short-term Investments

	₱308,883,892	₱436,106,740

Cash in banks earn interest at the prevailing bank deposit rates. Cash equivalents are short-term placements made for varying periods of up to three months, and earn interest at the respective short-term placement rates. Short-term placements with terms of more than three months, presented under “Short-term investments” account in the statements of assets, liabilities and fund balance amounted to ₱1,420,418 and ₱1,400,255 as at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.
